Phnom Penh, 23rd of April 2018

" I just came back yesterday from a survey nature-expedition with my office in the mysterious National Park of PHNOM BOKOR, South of Cambodia. The ex-guerilla Khmer Rouge found refuge in this massive Mountain along the sea. Because of their isolation, this sanctuary is largely untouched and wild still today. We explored the plateau and camped there on the first day, then trekked down the 1000m height-difference through a deep tropical forest among Hornbills, Giant squirrels and Gibbons in ...7 hours! (check video).
Now it is time to switch my trekking shoes for a flight ticket and discover amazing Shanghai!. Let's see you there in ITB China..."

LAO - CAMBODIA adventure circuit:

Embark on a new 5-day trek that ascends Laos' third highest mountain, Phou Louey the "Forever Mountain" (Elev. 2,257m).
It is one of the few cloud forests in the region. This trek through the evergreen forest includes a homestay in a Khmu village at the start of the tour, followed by a camping in jungle huts inside the protected area, and The (hanging) Nests and wildlife observation tower.

SUSTAINABLE TRAVEL:

Committed to promoting responsible and environmental-friendly activities, Adventure Travel Network organises tours worldwide.

PROJECT CAMBODIA: An example in Cambodia in Phnom Kulen, including visits of ADF projects (adfkulen.org), and uses part of its proceeds to support the foundation since 2010. Terre Cambodge are also supporting a new activity focusing on the school of Sangke Lak village (hygiene and infrastructures).
If you plan to visit Phnom Kulen you should read Visit Phnom Kulen.

For 7 years Terre Cambodge has been working with the Foundation ADFKULEN in educations's project and developing some sustainable travel + more info.

PROJECT MADAGASCAR: (ATN) Festival of "Humpback whales" from 07th to 15th July 2018 in Nosy Boraha (Sainte Marie Island), a unique opportunity to observe its marine mammals "Humpbacks" who migrate each year in warm Malagasy waters for 4 months (June to September). Boat trips will allow you to be in the front row to enjoy the spectacular ballets of the giants of the sea...
CETAMADA https://www.cetamada.org/?lang=en: Main organiser of this event, is a Malagasy association working on the protection of marine mammals, and providing scientific and environmental support.
MAD CAMELEON (www.madcameleon.com) will help you in organising this and others trip.
